Home»Games»Arcade»Granny Smith Granny Smith is an amazing game developed by Mediocre studio, which has also been released the famous sprinkle game app. This game is about an old but bloody fun woman who wore a roll and starts chasing a villain who cheekily steals the uneasy apples from her garden. Grandma will not stand for it, because apples are fraught with the secret of longevity and beauty. The main goal of the game is to get to the finish line avoiding obstacles in your path. By the way, grandma is clever enough to be a fast old woman because she is able to rollerblade, jump and even do somersaults. When it comes to additional rewards, grandma is obliged to collect coins scattered throughout the level. The user had to show off his skills to collect all the coins, for example, hang on the thinking cables, rotate with a stick, and bounce high on trampolines. But do not forget to collect three apples in each level, which can develop the skills of grandma. As for granny smith controls, this is quite understandable even for novices of the mobile gaming industry. There are two different buttons on the screen that you should tap when you need them. Otherwise, the grandmother can fall and something broke. The player is also able to customize the main character of the game by adding new equipment or improving his skills. The game has 12 large levels, during which Grandma Smith chases the thief. The gaming app also has several features that are listed below:interesting and fascinating gameplay that could attract dozens of new users;a beautiful visual effect that presented in the form of a detailed grandmother, her movements and other actions in the game;quite understandable control even for novice users;the ability to watch level replays in a certain mode;a significant number of additional means to seek reparations and return of stolen fruits;additional characters - a messy dog and a Stanley boy. Granny game screams creepy in every corner as soon as you run the game. From Grandma's nightmarish appearance to the grey and dark corners of each room, this game will leave you with goosebumps every second you play. The best way to play Granny is to use headsets. Not only does this make the experience much scarier, but it also helps to detect where grandma and her pet are through the sound of their tracks, which is all thanks to the spectacular surround sound made by the developers. Any torrent of doors, glass cracking and tingling of the spine will make you wake up at night. Who needs sleep anyway, right? Perhaps the most stellar bit of Granny's game is the mechanic itself. You have 5 days to leave the house before grandma starts butchering you and feeding her limbs to her unknown pet. You have to grab items, sabotage alarms, and even pick up weapons to defend and escape from your ever-wandering grandmother. Hide in tight corners when you hear the steps. Get under the bed, hide in the closet, crouch behind the couches, and at the same time make no sound. Grandma may be old, but she has super auditory abilities that can sense any noise from the meters. It can only be one setting, but that doesn't mean that granny horror game is linear. Every time you play a new game, items will be drawn anywhere. For example, car keys that were acquired on the kitchen counter can be found in the living room in the next session. If you open the safe, you can find a weapon. In some cases, it can be a trap. With a random spawning system, every playthrough always feels like a whole new game. So you've finally completed all the parts for your shotgun and you say, This should kill her. Unfortunately, this is not the case at all. You can shoot grandma with a shotgun, crossbow or tranquilizer gun, but that doesn't mean she'll stay forever. The worst part is that she is just knocked out. At least it's better than slowly crawling around the house unnoticed. Yes, she is immortal because god knows what so the best solution you have to take is to finish all your items and escape from there as soon as possible. No more dinner with grandma after that. If you're going to pick up a wire cutter, but then you thought the keys should be a priority instead, you're going to make a huge mistake. Granny horror game will allow you to hold only one item at a time. If you want to replace items, you will have to drop everything you have, causing a loud crackle that will cause grandma to charge in your direction. If you need to drop an item, make sure you have a hiding place nearby so that it can wander again after a while. Don't worry, all abandoned items in this position until you collect them. All right, it's a bit more energizing than that, similar to the rollerskate worn grandma, dashing by Collect coins and sonic style apples. There are only two original checks. The main one is hop, hop, the second is a snare with a walking stick. You should be quick with both to stand the level, as Grandma Smith doesn't offer an easy way. Get the bounce wrong and Grandma will face down on the base of a rough pit, or thumping over a pig. From time to time, this prompts you to restart the level; in some cases you're just left trying to discover that cheat and passing up a great chance for each of these apples. A walking stick is used to snare on things, for example, wires to slide down, James Bond-style. This is not an alternative: sometimes it is the main path through the level segment. There are also swings and hops, so you need to rush to the discharge and re-snare when there is a gap. To watch Granny Smith APK, just visit our Youtube channel or visit youtube.
